SIMPLY BETTER ENTERTAINMENT FROM A BRAND YOU TRUST

Immerse yourself in the experience of Sharp AQUOS XLED Google TVs™. The 65" Class (64.5" Diag.) 4T-C65FV1U AQUOS XLED Google TV featuring Xtreme Brightness and Deep Chroma QD combines the best parts of LCD and OLED technologies. Xtreme Brightness provides precise control of over 2,000 backlight dimming zones to achieve incredible dynamic color contrast. Deep Chroma QD delivers deep, rich, and nuanced colors for true-to-life visual experiences. Altogether, the AQUOS XLED series is the flagship model in the history of AQUOS, offering the highest level of brightness and color contrast performance.

Google TV brings movies, shows, live TV and more from all of your subscriptions to one place. Need inspiration? Get curated recommendations and use Google's powerful search to find shows across 10,000+ apps or to browse 300+ free live TV channels and thousands of free movies. Use your voice to find shows, play music, control smart home devices, and more with Google Assistant. With personalized watchlists and profiles, everyone's experience is customized for them. And you can even take it on the go with the Google TV mobile app. It's all the entertainment you love — with a little help from Google.

The stunning, modern design of the Sharp 4T-C65FV1U AQUOS XLED Google TV is a perfect addition to any room. The built-in 85W speaker system, and Dolby Atmos® deliver incredible depth of sound, even at lower volume settings.
